

Champlain Valley Educator Development Center

Collaborative Professional Learning to Support Vermont Schools

Learning to Stay Balanced, Embrace Blended Learning, & Learn about COVID-safe Classrooms

a virtual 3-part series to energize and support Vermont educators

Session 1: September 1, 2020 9 am - 10 am virtual Beyond Self-Care: Expanding Our Mental Wellness Understanding & Toolbox

Annie O'Shaughnessy, M.Ed in Mindfulness Education

After reflecting on and briefly exploring the cumulative impact of current stressors, we will learn and practice grounding techniques to use throughout our days and explore frameworks for leveraging the healing and regulating power of connecting.

Session 2: September 1, 2020 1 pm to 2 pm
Embracing Blended Learning
Pam Moran and Ira Socol, Innovation Experts

Explore with peers how weaving virtual and face-to-face learning throughout the week can enhance opportunities for personalized and deeper learning. We will share 1) tips for engaging learners asynchronously, synchronously while building community together and apart and 2) strategies for managing and coordinating learning experiences including feedback loops. Links for future reference.

Session 3: September 2, 2020 9 am to 10:30 am
Learning from Vermont Summer Programs about Safety, Learning & Success During COVID.
Vermont Summer Program Directors
Holly Morehouse, Vermont Afterschool Executive Director
Breena Holmes, Vermont Dept of Health

Vermont had very successful programs this summer where children spent the day playing and learning indoors with adult staff. Learn from the program directors, Vermont Afterschool and Vermont Dept of Health about how they kept staff and students safe while still having a great experience. Summer Programs were the first out of the gate and they can share a lot of the decisions and tips that worked for them.
