

Introduction to PLC and RTI at Work

Facilitated by Jackie Ramsay-Tolman, EWSD Director of Learning and Instructional Impact with guest: Jack Baldermann, Illinois Principal & leader of multiple award-winning schools

Target Audience: Leaders and Improvement Teams

“When a school or district functions as a PLC, educators within the organization embrace high levels of learning for ALL students as both the reason the organization exists and the fundamental responsibility of those who work within it.” Dufour, Dufour and Eaker

Professional Learning Communities (PLCs) have been at the forefront of reform efforts as a viable means of transforming schools to improve student achievement. Today’s educational leaders face complex challenges, and Professional Learning Communities have been at the forefront of reform efforts as a viable and researched based means of transforming schools to close achievement gaps for all students. Our work integrates the PLC model with the RTI at Work Model to support systemic change that has a positive impact on student achievement.

In this 75-minute session, Jackie Ramsay - Tolman and Jack Baldermann will share information about:

- the integration of these models,
- the work-to-date in EWSD and at Jack’s school,
- how this work can support your system
- how it is aligned to VT MTSS and
- introduce a workshop series that will be offered during the 2021 - 2022 school year. (October 1, December 3, March 18)
- discuss what team to bring for the series
