Collaborative Professional Learning to Support Vermont Schools

Framework-Based Professional Support and Supervision/Evaluation

3 Graduate Credit Course includes face-to-face, practicum and blended learning

Instructor: Valerie Sullivan, Ed.D

Target Audience: Supervisors/Mentors/Principals and Aspiring Leaders using the Charlotte Danielson Framework

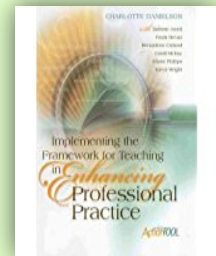

The purpose of this course is to become familiar with Charlotte Danielson's Enhancing Professional Practice: A Framework for Teaching, and its use in the development of improved instructional practices and the resulting positive impact on student learning. Application of the Framework as both a mentoring tool and supervision tool will be studied.

Objectives and Course Schedule

By course completion, participants will have an increased understanding of:

- August 13th Session: Applications of Danielson's Framework for models of mentoring and supervision/evaluation
- August 13th Session: The development of a common language for talking about and assessing teaching
- August 14th Session: Clear levels of performance for teacher assessment, with emphasis on reflection and self-assessment
- August 15th and Practicum: Structured inquiries through which mentors or supervisors can guide beginning teachers in the development of essential professional skills
- August 15th and Practicum: Observation, data collection, and facilitating conversations that promote self-inquiry, is strengths-based and focused on student outcomes

Fall Learning and Practicum: An additional 30 hours of learning and applied practicum during the fall semester. Course content and material delivered as blended learning using Schoology. Practicum requires evidence of engaging in all aspects of the mentoring or supervision process, emphasizing professional reflection and self-evaluation. All assignments, practicum evidence, and reflections must be completed by December 1, 2018.
